

I went to the Texas Capitol yesterday to offer my support for election reform, and specifically in favor of H.B. 6, the Election Integrity Protection Act of 2021, authored by my friend Briscoe Cain.

However, I was unable to do so because Texas Democrats made a mockery of the process and tried to take over the committee, shut down the hearing, and postponed the matter for what will likely be a week. Despite this, Chairman Cain showed incredible poise and resolve from the Committee Chair in his mission to ensure all Texans get their chance to comment on this important legislation.

Many of you have asked how you can support election reform. Here's how: When the bill is back before the Election Committee, call and email your state legislators and tell them that we need to pass this bill. We must counter the efforts of Democrats like Beto O'Rourke who are showing up at the Capitol to block election reform. We must take a stand for free, fair, and secure elections in Texas.

You have already seen what the Democrats in Washington are trying to do to encourage voter fraud and permanently retain power. We can't let that happen in Texas. And we can never have another election fiasco like 2020 ever again.

The American people deserve to have confidence in their elections. Let's work together to ensure that.
